Single Player modus. I have 2 find the 3 scientists, Mobius, and that girl-mubius (forgot her name) I've done that, i had to lead her to an helicopter, and completed the level. Then, she wants to go with me, in a special mobius-suit or something, and we're captured, by a lot of men in stealth suits, and a couple of stealth tanks. I've escaped, and i'm on a open terrain, where tons of helicopters arrive with men of NOD. I just walked, and walked, and ren into a building. I'm now in there, and need to "disable Station Beta" in the Recearch Facility or something. I'm now standing on a bridge, and away from target in 120 meters.. I can walk into something, with an elevator, I go up, and am again in de beginning.. Can someone please help me how to get to my target?Ps. My English isn't very good.. I'm just 15 years old and Dutch

There's also a harvester to kill on that level by an archeological dig. After you blast the turrets - don't go in the research building, but go back the way you came. Walk up the hill and over the stone arch. As soon as you see the mobile artillery, turn left and follow the passage. You'll see a harvester - blast it for a tertiary objective credit then go in the archeological site for armor and lots of weapons. But you gotta fight your way back out hehe so get ready...Then go back to research facility.
