Quote: Attach your release to your forum post, unless your release is too big to be attached. This is very important as it's the only way to make sure that in a couple of months/years, your download still exists.
Plz.

It's such a pity you refuse to attach your work to the forum post.

Hey, Gj, Just downloaded.

There are quite alot of differences actually, first of all the Nod logos and the light, then I think the turret texture is of higher definition.

Anyway I changed one of the textures, I think it looks even better now.
