To be honest that looks like a red GDI emblem (and a really shitty one at that), but okay...

If the moon were to be red, it would at least not give white glowing.

Dude this just sucks!
Like we said a hundred times before, put more effort in your skins. Skinning ain't just copy + paste.

And please STOP spamming the mod release section with crap. I suggest the next time you post something, it's a DECENT SKIN which shows us that you have PUT SOME EFFORT in it. Anybody could recreate this stuff.
