I figure it is a DDS just like the bullet holes and scorch marks.
I just went through the XCC mixer but I didn't see it. Hopefully I just overlooked it.

Found it.

d_smdirt2.dds

It has an alpha channel which you can edit so save as DXT5

Hmm, what hud_main.dds are you using?

Encircled with paint:

I have tried to fix the faction icons for the default HUD, but I kinda failed with it, and never bothered it again.

Would it be possible to release the two icons (NOD and GDI), which are shown if you target at friendly/enemy Buildings, Vehicles and Infantry?
