[Units-White Black Green] Stealth tank is now complete peeps,

tried many things on this one to make it look good while not tabooing and making it a lame "advantage" skin, but not only was this as true to the others as it could get, if you cant spot a stank in the field anyway with its glowing aura, you should uninstall ren like, now. :3

i less-than-three it anywayz, hope you all like it too, took me a while.

peace all thx

UnitXc

This is a very well done skin, I have to say that this is an excellent job!

I'm even thinking of using it myself, actually. Would you mind if I edited the colours though?

Edit: [4 star rating from me]

Very nice indeed.

One question what are all the way to bright squares on the tank / in your screenshots?

This is just superb!
I've not liked many stank skins that people made beacause they looked unprofessional and uglier than the original, This on the other hand is truly an excellent job, well done.

You put a lot of work in these skins. Very nice . I'll wait for the complete pack before considering using them.
