This means i have to face my brother which is no fun, is there a solution to this? ive seen some mission maps all players on GDI and game is going. please tell me how!

The easy way is to go online and play a mission/co-op server.

problem is, i lag and i share 2 computers 1 connection. it lags, my ping jumps to 2-3k+. i prefer it lan because i dont lag whatsoever and my ping is at a stable level of 50-100. so that way its more funner to play with my bro and mates.
