I thought cw.cc players weren't supposed to use adv skins? Or was that rule changed?

Thanks all, appreciate the good feedback.

@ Goztow: First, I am not cw.cc. Second, I wasn't even playing in this game. You have no idea if I added those skins just for recording the video or not.

Surely you're not referring to my bridge sign on City. Clearly that is a disadvantage skin because it is distracting..

Hadn't it come to you that it would be considered cheating if people could spectate during a game?
