crysis has already surpassed GoodOneDriver, OGD as we call him just posted crap over and over that was 5 minute jobs, claimed it was hours of work. Crysis, nice work on your model, which is what this thread is about. And I think the texture looks good. If it wasn't stretched, it would look better, but I like the colour of it.

im not really into models (even tho im a modeller LOL) for ren, adding stuff is just a hinderance, they cant see it you can walk through it, you cant see through it, if they plant a nuke/ion inside a piece of fake geometry your not gonna be able to disarm it because you wont know where it is :/

if im talking crap then just stop me there, but i believe in just changing colours is more than enough if done right, not physical appearance.

I think you should shut the fuck up. Don't compare crisis with goodonedriver. This model might not be his best yet, but the skins he made are awesome.

Don't listen to this faggot crisis, just ignore him
