1. My first flying game i looked 10 minutes at the icon of the apache heli on the pt because the airstrip was destroyed.2. Finnaly buyed my first Heli. I got in...higher higher and higher.. and pressed e in place off w and jumped out.... dead....waiting to have 900 cr again...3. Buyed my third heli dropped in the wrong heli of someone ells he got higher and higher... let me out let me out... get down get down... i dropped out to high... dead...4. I Tried to land on the hand of nod on the cross that worked. Nice so i wanted to drop out and i dropped next to the hand of nod in place off on top... back to the heli on roof again quick....5. So the defence Cannons of nod can hit me to... fifth heli.....They are cool.....

First thing I did was....Fly to GDI base in Apache, got shot to peices by AGT and Orcas. Then flew madly in and out of the city buildings, even looped the bridge to get back to base.[ April 18, 2002: Message edited by: The Argon Array ]

Not stupid so much as unsurprising:Bought a chinook, flew rpund the base once, then parked and waited to see how long till someone took it An unexpected surprise was seeing the taker appear (respawn) in our base about 2mins later

I was in the city map yesterday... Everybody had a heli. And we saw an advance engi running to the hand of nod. So all the heli's rushed to the hand of nod to defend. So there where like 7 8 heli's around the hand of nod. But nobody wanted to jump out. And repair.. LOL
