All day long at work I sit around wishing I was home so I could play this game , but I'm not alone! I tried to convince my boss to let me have tomorrow off soley so I could play Renegade(I told him I had a dentist appointment ), but no, I can't do that for a 3rd time this week Maybe I'll break my leg or something so I can stay home and get compo for a few months while my addiction dies down lol, doesn't matter how old you are. If you're a kid, you've got school. When you're out of school, you've got college. When you're out of college, you're working. And by the time you're done working and have retired, all your reflexes and stuff are gone.
