Should have done more than just put a single word in there. This is actually a good idea (Di3 has his own variant) but do more, spice it up a bit.

Its a good concept, you should spice it up more though. For example I would make the writing more digital style.

you did what we wanted in ver 2?

I see more skins! is that what we wanted?

It's very original to change the dead mct skin, but it's quite drab really. sorry

Here's a nice rule of thumb. Track the total time put into it. If it's less than, say, 10-15 minutes, then try thinking of more ways to improve it.

Ver. 2 is better, but still lacking in my opinion... I can't read the font either. Maybe make a companion skin for the MCT? Like one that says "Building Health-o-meter (lol?)" and make a skin for when it's still alive or something.

^Yea, gay ideas, but maybe I started some brainstorming?
