Why should he completely remove them?

Though I do agree that if those building bars were done by you, he should give you the credits for it instead of saying he and player made the whole hud.

It look since tbh Some thins are indeed a bit pixely but you could fix that.

Warum sollt ich deine buildingbars löschen ?? was willst machen ??

du hast mich schon auf rencom gebannt...

ach und die harvbars funktionieren garnich und was willst machen wenn ich deine shaders.dll release ??

You will see what happens when you release it without the source code.

Because he was never allowed to have it, or to trade with it to get other stuff.

Edit: No idea why it's a double post now.

I think thats kinda hard when he posted it with the buildingbars in the first place...

No offence crysis your work is good but just as last time there is stuff that shouldnt be on that screenshot. Especially if you are not releasing it like that. Or know you cant release it like that.

Who the fuck cares about huds.

Seriously, its just a piece of shit. It wont help you kill more people or win. Renegade is for playing and having fun not for making huds and show them off.

Too realistic, that hud would be better in call of duty or something.
