You love it but you dont like it? Lol.

Anyways, i know nothing about that "kirby" but its it too childish? Why dont you model a hit chic and make it a replacement for the c4.

Your whole game looks messed up. How can you even see anything through all the advantage skins you use? This c4 is the least of his advantage skins, tbh. Very, very ugly game you have. The kirby is the only thing that looks remotely decent, but is way too bright.

maybe his game is a bit advantage
but it isnt ugly everything matches there

I'll admit that kirby is indeed advantage but i did not make it for that reason.

I dont not see how the rest of my skins are advantage? Nod is black with blue line, and gdi is also black with yellow lines, All the characters and vehicles are like this, they are darker than original skin. the only real adavtage skin is c4 and again i did not make it for that reason. I only made them because i thought they would look cool.

I am sorry you feel that way and i will remove them from these fourms if you wish LOL it's missing its point then, apparently . OK, I stand corrected . The Kirby seems to be the only advantage skin in there.

Dear god, if there's one thing i don't like bright and pink, it's gotta be C4

One thing, this new c4 is little bigger than the original one so it will be easier to repair.

Fine then, instead of picking it apart for everything that is wrong with it being an advantage and all, i'll just remove it
