Dude, if it's Di3hard's model with a camo texture pasted over it (another one of your great copy paste masterpieces) it is NOT your first model replacement. You didn't model it at all.

Have you been listening to anyone when they tell you to put more effort into your work? Because, this is not effort worthy of recognition.

It's a re-texture of Di3hard's custom model. So yes, it's not your first model replacement.... wow, just wow
