Always wondered how Spooky did it so easily all the time...And today I did it too!!!11

The gun on the light tank is very traversable!

Gj, but Spoony generally goes around with a Sak in a Light which makes killing Orcas's a lot easier.

Your next objective is to take out an Orca one on one with a Mobile Artillery. Your idol Spoony was the Orca in this case when I did that!

yeah, pretty much impossible to win med vs flyer unless the flyer is bad or you have some kind of cover(ob, infantry, other tanks).. while it takes... 3...4? shots with an artillery? I forgot.

meds are ok under the bridge if an apache chases them under, other than that they blow a medhavoc is also nowhere near as good as a lightsak, but then it surprises me how few people seem to've noticed (8 years in) what absolute buckets of sex light tanks are on cityfly... definitely the best thing available for either team on that map.

Meds are still tougher to pull it off with, but in public server,s light vs orca is n_P to be honest...

@starbuzz, why do you always smurf now lol?

Star, do you take screenshots after you connect all of your shots with some enemy target?

I am just so superstitious lol. I have had great luck with my smurf nick so I use it all the time now! I always seem to have bad games and bad luck and play suckage and blow with my main nick I have no idea why.

R315r4z0r wrote on Fri, 05 November 2010 23:18Star, do you take screenshots after you connect all of your shots with some enemy target?

R3, what do you mean? I don't understand what you are asking me.

I take SS of every kill/vehicle kill/building kill/endgamescreen/kill-death or MVP recs that gets awarded after each game/etc and generally take loads of SS each game!

That is what I was asking. When you connect a shot, then it means you hit your target. So I was asking if you took screenshots each time one of your attacks hit an enemy target.

I was just wondering because you always seem to have screenshots your accomplishments and it just seemed odd that you would somehow just decide to make a series of screenshots showing the first time you've ever done something (taking a series of screenshots leading up to your accomplishment would indicate some level of forethought).

But if you do it after every time you hit your enemy, then it's understandable... but you must have hundreds upon hundreds of screenshots...

I always forget to take a screenshot when I really need one. After the moment is over, I always say "aww, I should have taken a screen shot of that..." I'd do what you do but I don't really like wasting space like that.

Well, Ren was the first game ever that I actually played online and soon many of the people I played with became friends. So I tried to preserve all the memories and became an SS-addict. I do have thousands of SS (organized by year/month) and they do take up space but I have a nice external HDD where I put all that and keep it all organized. For Ren, it is absolutely worth it.

edit:

Spoony wrote on Fri, 05 November 2010 16:02a medhavoc is also nowhere near as good as a lightsak, but then it surprises me how few people seem to've noticed (8 years in) what absolute buckets of sex light tanks are on cityfly... definitely the best thing available for either team on that map.

btw, I have always wanted to tell you. I have this n00bish urge to be in a fully repaired vehicle at all times. I get very uneasy even if a few health/armour is missing. But you get around with light/saks easy and even if you took damage, you still stay put holding your position and hitting buildings. I can't seem to do that.
