You've made a lot of CSS/HTML topics. This isn't a chat room you know.

Try using references:

http://www.w3schools.com/sitemap/sitemap_references.asp

<http://htmldog.com/reference/>

Unless you want an actual chatroom, in which case you may want to join #css and #html on irc.freenode.net. There are hundreds of people in each channel to help you out.
