I know you will probably flame me (Loki) from my reputation, but be honest. When you were playing against me did you see anything that made you scream cheat? And if you think I cheat tell me your reasons.

reason for this thread: he private messaged me asking for games. i was reluctant to play for two reasons. firstly it couldn't be a clanwar cos he's banned from my league (albeit by the previous administration), secondly because everybody i've talked to says he cheats.

he argues his innocence and says he was "framed". i told him it's pointless him pm'ing me about it, let him argue his innocence publicly, let his accusers post publicly and let him refute them. hence this thread.

I was banned from a video BoSNiaN posted, or a friend hacked my account and point pushed a few of matches. The admins have said I was banned for both of those so im not sure. And there was no proof in bosnians video, but because of my past everyone assumed it was bs, because of my reputation then my video.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=prjTn7qy9X4&feature=channel>

You should be able to figure it out. Now it makes sense

I hooked up azazel with the triggerbot. he said he didn't use it though, but yet he stopped using v for some mysterious reason and is one of the top snipers in ren. Look at his sniping style in the video - His knowledge of the game is horrible, no way that guy is beating any top sniper by 10 kills.

Not exactly him ever admitting to cheats, but it's sort of implied...that's him attempting to help in an accusation.

<http://tmxclan.up-your.com/kicked-or-banned-f14/loki-projakson-t893.htm>

He also likes to evade VERY frequently, using the BR "" character glitch in servers w/o SSGM, or a proper script.

I have been working to get this guy banned in every server for well over a year now, trying to get proof. His cheats are obvious for the normal player, just hard to catch and prove. Every now and then he will slip up and spec kill someone randomly though, but i never seem to be able to fraps it .. Trust me when i say this, ignore him, he will continue to plea to play, saying he did cheat, and does not anymore, but the fact is that he still does...as many other people can back up.

Sorry to have to be the 1 to be serious .

I'll dig up more vids and logs if necessary.

I always thought he had radar hack at least. but its kinda obvious really. I would have thought you might have been clever enough to stop cheating once servers began to ban you.

But obviously dum.

Wait, so you admit it now? If you are making the case that this was something you only did way in the past, the date of those logs was only abt a month ago...

Not to mention, after you were banned, you started cheating in our co-op server under the name IWantBeef. You even gave out links to download cheat name removed to other players ingame. I can post these logs as well, if you wish.

In fact, even today you were caught evading our ban under the name georgeofjungle33.

So, I find it hard to believe that anything has changed.

tbh those logs just show a bunch of noobjetting on free inf... doesn't take cheats to get those kills, especially if the nubs getting jetted straight line and charge ya(as most do).

Lol. This guy still cheats. 3 Days ago he was in 1337-Snipers US Server, Telling everyone in PM He was Azazel "Undercover", I did IP Search, Serial search, And nick search. Nothing came back as Azazel.

Then, To your question if he still cheats.

He was banned in 1337-Snipers euro server 2 days ago for ROF Hacks (Our anti-cheat picked him up). So, Yes, He still hacks pretty big time. And watch for his spoof nicks & his evading of bans.

53-3 k/d in 13 minutes? That coupled with the fact that every1 ingame was complaining seemed pretty suspicious.

His comments on IRC afterwords and the fact the he didnt appeal the ban sorta sealed it for me.

ah, now we come to it.

how about you put all your cards on the table:

- which servers have you cheated in?
- cheated in funwars? if so against who?
- cheated in the clanwars league?

i know only one of those is really my business anyway, but you came to me in the first place saying your reputation was unfairly given.

The faildus IRC logs show him cheating less than a month ago, so I doubt any amount of honesty will save him.

Although, the more he comes forward with, the easier it will be to ridicule him and the funnier this thread will be, so I'm all for him being honest.

I'm not going to lie, I know he's cheated against me in the past, but I think he's pretty clean now, he might use it sometimes in a public server, but he hasn't used it against me for a good few months now in all the funwars we've done recently. As for this Faildus thing, they'll never get over it. We could retaliate and call it n00bshities, but we havn't since we actually have some maturity, but, that's a seperate topic.

The logs show him cheating less than a month ago. Is that not recent?

Hypnos wrote on Fri, 13 November 2009 07:48 As for this Faildus thing, they'll never get over it. We could retaliate and call it n00bshities, but we havn't since we actually have some maturity, but, that's a seperate topic.

Over what? There's nothing to get over. As for the maturity bit, if you DID choose to retaliate, I doubt any NS member would give two shits about it. It'd be pretty immature to get butthurt over something so petty as words on a screen.

Im one of the players left in renegade that arent assholes and I would have over 100 games a month on clanwars.cc if you unbanned me, because i play everyday. I dont dodge the better players of cw.cc so I would be a really good addon to the league, plz spoony if you give me just 1 chance i promise I wont screw it up, because i really do love clanwars. From my past cheating experience i can also fill you in on a lot of flaws and vulnerabilities of certain hacks. If i am unbanned I will be a great asset to the Clanwars.cc league. To all the people that think I cheat you are basically saying I cheat every single game I play...when I dont care if I win or lose, this game doesn't matter that much to me to cheat and never will.

But it used to matter enough to cheat, Loki.

If the Exodus/Faildus thing gets mention beyond this post, all the offending parties will be banned for being unable to stay on topic.

You seem to make a rather sincere argument, but two things cause me to question its authenticity.

A) You started this thread claiming you never cheated, and it wasnt till I posted the Exodus IRC logs that you admitted to it.

B) You were caught cheating in Exodus AOW and Co-op roughly a month ago, and in one instance you even tried giving out cheats to other players.

Because of these two things, I find it hard to believe that you will play clean @ cw.cc, and even if you do, I don't think it is going to be a positive reflection of the league in the eyes of the Renegade community.

Your a douchebag...you used cheats. You already used cheats in clanwars to so you are lying about that. You should just come clean about everything because anybody smart would not let you play in their server.

one question loki, will you swear that you've never cheated in a clanwar or funwar?

if you lie about this then you're never ever getting unbanned... if you tell the truth then there's a dim possibility i might unban you quite a long time away from now you guys are clearly trying to hard to get loki banned on a game that barely gets played anymore and loki is one of those people who are trying to get .cc a lot more games. im pretty sure most of the people here have tested a cheat to see how it works and shit in a public server on a smurf nick (yes most of you will deny it) , and then after they got bored they took the cheat off and started playing clean. if anyone of you have played with loki the last couple of months you can tell that he isnt cheating and has interest to play some clanwars. so i dont see why u dont unban him and keep an eye on him until the naxt time u have proof on a "clanwar server" that he is cheating and that this topic will be locked and he will be forever banned on .cc

All the worse. If the game isn't played much, smaller amounts of cheaters have a greater overall impact, since they make up a greater proportion of the player base. A small player base is a reason to crack down on cheaters, not to let them slide.

^^ when a cheater is caught, there's always someone who, no matter what, thinks they shouldn't be banned. and no matter how the situation develops, when it turns out the culprit's cheating goes deeper than originally thought or when it turns out he lied to the community a great deal, the person just moves the goalposts.

firstly, "trying too hard to get loki banned". no. he came to me, remember, and tried to get me to help him clear his reputation. can you look at this thread and say i gave him unfair treatment? if he turned out to be innocent then everything i've said would have been on his side.

"loki is one of those people who are trying to get .cc a lot more games."
i don't want more activity at .cc if the price is letting cheaters and compulsive liars get away with it, sorry. right now we've just started revitalising the league this month and so far it's going great... we have three "top clans" fighting for the cup already, strong clan identities, no accusations against each other, no cheating, no pointpushing... and you think the best thing for me to do at this point is let loki into the mix? please.

"im pretty sure most of the people here have tested a cheat to see how it works and shit in a public server on a smurf nick" i haven't, i've done my testing in private passworded servers so as not to interfere with someone else's enjoyment of the game. and of course, even if your statement was true for "most of the people here", then the most notable exception would be loki.

"if anyone of you have played with loki the last couple of months you can tell that he isnt cheating" this is what you said in your first post. that post was before his admissions, so in that case we could simply dismiss you as having really bad judgment. now, we need to be a little more suspicious.

finally, you "don't see why I don't unban him"? please explain to me why unbanning him could be a good thing. he ought to take my advice. there's only one way he can regain any respect; that's to play non-smurfing from now on with no cheats, and it's gonna take a lot longer than a week. some people will never trust him, of course, but that's tough shit for him.

Why admit that?

I agree people who got caught cheating should be banned, but not for ever. If these players who cheated are kind, they should have a chance as long as they understand it was bad. If someone acts like last nerd e.g mrackz, shouldn't have any chance.

@ Dover , no i have never cheated in public or cw.cc game/server only tested in a private server to see what i need to keep my eyes on while im a mod.

@ George , either u dont have a hobby or a life. choose one. you stated before you dont know who loki is so u have no business spamming here

@ Spooky i never said u are trying to hard to ban him , im talking to the people who hate him and give him a second chance. And I thank you for handling this topic as fair as possible. But seeing as you pointed out that only 3 clans are actualy active maybe it might get better with loki being as he is active and that he has never cheated in a cw.cc game (as far as ive been playing with him)a bit more fun into the game. I dont see the point in you keeping him banned from cw.cc has anything to be positive , seeing he has only disrupted public games not having anything to do with .cc

GEORGE ZIMMER wrote on Sun, 15 November 2009 06:49Yaza wrote on Sun, 15 November 2009 03:21you guys are clearly trying to hard to get loki banned on a game that barely gets played anymore and loki is one of those people who are trying to get .cc a lot more games. im pretty sure most of the people here have tested a cheat to see how it works and shit in a public server on a smurf nick (yes most of you will deny it) , and then after they got bored they took the cheat off and started playing clean. if anyone of you have played with loki the last couple of months you can tell that he isnt cheating and has interest to play some clanwars. so i dont see why u dont unban him and keep an eye on him until the next time u have proof on a "clanwar server" that he is cheating and that this topic will be locked and he will be forever banned on .cc
LOL.

Just... LOL.

This guy is a moron, prolly should ban him aswell just to make sure.

Yaza wrote on Sun, 15 November 2009 08:36 And I thank you for handling this topic as fair as possible.

yep. that means keeping him banned from clanwars.

Quote: But seeing as you pointed out that only 3 clans are actually active maybe it might get better with loki being as he is active and that he has never cheated in a cw.cc game (as far as ive been playing with him) a bit more fun into the game. I dont see the point in you keeping him banned from cw.cc has anything to be positive , seeing he has only disrupted public games not having anything to do with .cc firstly, i did not say only three clans were active. i said three "top clans". there are more than CAG, H2O and TC playing right now.

secondly, why would you think he's never cheated in a clanwar? it is true that clanwars was as good as dead for the last year or so until i came back, so let's count funwars too for that period.

thirdly, a lot of people thought that clanwars wouldn't get going again because of undetectable cheats. indeed, they're a real bitch. but clanwars IS working again, because the regulars generally trust each other. everybody knows they can play me, for example, without worrying about cheats. it's going surprisingly well... why on earth would i sully all that by letting loki back into the league? the worst cheats are sufficiently hard to catch somebody with that if someone IS caught, they deserve no leniency.

let me put this simply; he's never shown me a single reason to think the league is better with him in it. and the only way he ever will is if from now on he plays without cheating and without smurfing, in the small number of servers he isn't banned from. if he can't do that then perhaps you'll begin to see things my way, hmmm?

Nice entirely unrelated ad hominem there, and yes I don't know him personally, who cares? If I suddenly did, does that make him not a cheater? A cheater is a cheater, and it's been proven NUMEROUS TIMES that he has... he's even lied in this very thread, and the fact that you come in here saying we have no right to call him a cheater makes you look hilariously stupid. Renegade has the most retarded cheaters in the world...when you look at the amount of cheat protection and the features of the cheats on the market, it puzzles me how virtually every cheater that made it obvious ended up getting caught. I'm sure there are a few clever ones that cheated without anyone ever noticing...I mean, fucking Soul did a relatively good job covering up and that guy was one of the dumbest people I've ever talked to.

But i wanted to get caught.. I always had the same mind about that, before and after.

loki came to me privately, but that was no good. i said if he wanted to clear his reputation, he'd have to do it publicly and let people make their accusations... hence this thread.

of course, it's turned out to have backfired on him. if he turned out to be completely innocent then i'd be on his side sticking up for him. since he isn't innocent in any real sense, he's gotta put up with the inevitable public ridicule.

Why on Earth should Spoony, or anyone else have to keep Loki on a tight leash. That puts the responsibility on someone else, which is unfair. The onus should be on Loki, and given his current record, I'd say it's kinda hard to 'trust' a guy who's cheated it up in pretty much every server in Renegade...

...including a Co-op server lol...

... and expect him to play nice in a clanwar? That's a pretty tall order.

Both Gloves and Loki have little multi-personalities, depending on who is in game. Though his ip seems to be neither, but a random nick spoofer. Changing ip's is easy though, but the range is completely different from Loki's ip also.

i also remember what i was doing the night he made that video, some of my friends were putting on a gig in nottingham. and at the time, he played like 5 times as much renegade as i did (plus cheated and went to great lengths to hopelessly deny it)... then i come home and he informs me that i need a life. ho hum even if loki had shift locked down with tape, radar on all the time, and velocity to 1000%, he still wouldn't get close to winning anything against decent clans

I've seen and caught him cheating in funwars, clanwars, in public servers (and banned him subsequently) co-op servers, I've seen him talk about using cheats, exchanging them and I've been sent at least 5 frapses of him cheating, all over the span of about a year and a half. Loki doesn't deserve a second chance because he's already had one. And a third. And a fourth. And a fifth. etc.

nah, the post of the year is the last two pages of the 11-page pointsfix thread when he completely snapped :/

i never thought i'd say i felt sorry for loki, but i honestly do... something went very wrong for him on christmas day and drove him right over the edge.
