Yea same here i use the 2nd and 4th the most (depending on which i wish to see) also i used the third for multiple months before releasing these (this is in order of the pictures *not the names of pics* and not the folders)

There was also going to originally be a 5th one in the shape of a circular saw blade but it didn't really come out to match the game style...

I think the 2nd is the only one where you can still see your enemies heads from far away.
