My name is SN Lawson, US Navy. I would like to know if there are other millitary personel who play renegade. please put down your name, rank, branch of service, and country (obviously not everyone is from the US)

Please note if you are not comfortable with puting your name, you can just put down you branch of service

We had a modeler working with us on our projects, can't remember his name though but he's in the front lines now.
