Well, i fixed the textures, polished some of the modeling, and spiced up the gun a bit.

Here it is!

The red screen and the red textures are animated.

Comments are appreciated!

I dunno. Looks like a chaingun / Lightbulb to me

Appreciate the effort though, but this one isn't for me.

Heh it looks awesome

Maybe try making a cool emitter to fit with this?

I think it has sort of an advantage because this weapon is longer than the default PIC, but meh D:

All I can think of is the beta chem launcher, but the color looks great.

i know what u mean but, i made it more for an obbygun which is the same model as the pic gun so....

yea

i may convert it to a railgun

Whoa your back? /offtopic

Anyways, good model, i agree with others change it to a railgun or change the tubes red colour to blue
