It's probably your graphics card and you have set your resolution too high when you play the game....

So what's the deal C4? You escaped from the mental hospital and expect to be caught soon. Or did you just get out of rehab and are already having a relapse. I've read a few of your posts and you really are an angry, psychotic bltch. I hope you don't treat other people in your life like you treat the people hear. That would be a real shame... or maybe you have no more friends left.

yeah... thats it.... i escaped from a mental hospital.... and now i'm outside your window.... with a 9 inch knife waiting to cut you up bad..... orrrrrr is it that i enjoy p*ssing people off... hmmmmmm jump to a f'ing conclusion moron.... I do this just for the sheer enjoyment of making people angry or just even getting a response from them is all the satisfaction i need....but then again i had to point this out... leading you from A to B to C... so that your pathetic tiny pea sized brain could possibly comprhend what i'm trying to do..... an if you think I act like this in person... well... I'll leave that to your imagination.... I could really care less if you think of me as a psychotic killing machine bent on hacking up bodies or the sweetest little girl you've ever met... really doesn't bother me since your nothing but a paragraph to me.... just a waste of skin probably on the other side of the planet.... so talk away trailer park trash....
