I've completed the Humvee and after realizing how much time it takes to properly blend it i want comments before i continue onto the rest of the GDI vehicles.

So, yea comments tips.

I was going to edit the rims but no design i came up with looks good Looks nice as a base for a more detailed skin but at the moment quite bland. Try experimenting with adding shades of gray or a secondary colour scheme.

The skin is based upon these skins the bland that your referring to would have no blending and would just look like brushed metal therefore would look like complete shit

Edit: quick question what is the file for the humvee windows blending is my word for making the darker parts on one part match the darker parts on another part of the humvee brushed metal is this mine is a more detailed edit of brushed metal if there was no "blend" dark would end on light resulting in a bad looking humvee

and the question added was not for you
