If you have any proof whatsoever of Speedr hacking, please show it. Before he was accepted as a moderator, we nick/ip/serial searched him to hell and back. Not to mention other stuff since.

If it was not for him and a few other Egyptian fellows (the legitimate ones), Rencorner would not have gotten the start it needed.

SpEeDr played in my server for a long time before he became a moderator and he has always ran 4.0. He's a half mod here. He's Egyptian, so yes the only server he (and other Egyptians) can play on is ours because everyone else seems to have their ISP black listed. They're all forced to run 4.0 - and SpEeDr is actually a pretty cool kid - just an annoying language barrier.

As for our server (RenCorner), it's for people who kind of miss the small things (that in my opinion) st0rm had that was appreciated a lot by people. Except it's a little bit closer to the original Renegade feel and the mods we have keep the game somewhat competitive and more fun that pretty much helps Marathon games end quicker.

As for the noise, I believe we're working on a sound trigger spam limiter. Overall, we get lot's of fun here though. If you don't like it, go to the other alternatives? Nothing else to really say...

Anyone we suspect is cheating as well ex-cheaters are forced to use 4.0 - on top of that we got a pretty damn good anti-cheat system in place (credit goes to Xpert on that).

I give everyone chances. When you blow it here that's when we ban ya.

Ill have to agree on this. OFC there will always be differences and PPL not liking each other, but a ServerWar is not needed. There are proolly Reasons why jelly is less visited rite now and Rencorner is more. It is as it is. Just live with it and be happy there are still active Servers.

I respect Animoski and rencorner, but I can't believe that what little players left in renegade are drawn to a changed server like that. The fact the people are drawn to a server where you can use commands to buy tanks, weapons, and have rank systems to make your tank/you stronger as well as DNA pick ups is taking away what is left of original renegade.

I am not saying it has to be clean cut settings like n00bstories (other than points doubler) but it is seriosuly going to piss me off when renegade dies out more and I am stuck in a changed server like Rencorner or playing in Jelly (which I don't hate the server, I just hate marathon itself and having 50 people in a server is way to fucking much to enjoy a game).

I respect Jelly and I mod there, just hate marathon itself and to many people lol

It is just ashame when n00bstories has 0 players and my choices are limited.

Basically the only servers should be n00bstories, Jelly, and I guess TMX for 1 sniper server. Nothing else should exist in renegade at this point in time.

again you confuse myself with yourself charlie ..

I draw people in the haters alone that join just to kill me is crazy .
and althou you don't think it charlie I do have a following and there is lots of players on my side. I maybe have more support than you do . the guys will not say this out load or to you as they fear that to support mdk is to be banned or a target by guys such as yourself ...

and to try and turn animoski against me or g1d realy is not needed he knows what I am and how I act . even with the post I made about him and the things said . he still lets me play in his server .
that alone wins him points as a person and admin that is willing to let things go and move on unlike you guys who hold on to your hate or just join in with the hate others have .

most ppl know my position on the subject ...I hope jelly die's.. and I will do/say or assist in that happening regardless of what anyone thinks or says.

Believe it or not - It's been quite peaceful over on our side of the pond. People I have imagined would never get along with each other (imagine G1D, shaitan, Xpert, even reborn to an extent) all getting along and doing something productive for a common cause..

I'd like to say that I was the one who made it happen (communication is key) - but I think a common courtesy exists in everyone on some level and even the trolls like playing in our server where they know they can enjoy the game (and its' mods) without getting hassled. That's a right I extend out to everyone.

We're pretty much drama free aside from some small shit that every community has to go through. I don't tolerate it though, and for the most part that's why I tend to avoid these forums lol

That was from a long long long time ago, tmx runs the same exact thing, and a few other servers. I believe this was scripted by blacky.

We don't even run this anymore.

You run a ragequit command where when someone leaves it shows who killed them and they ragequit from it, this was !rq and it kicks you from game and shows that msg.

That was a brenbot plugin made by someone else that I was testing out and threw in. I, nor did anyone else, really use that specific feature or even care about it. A few people may have, that's it.
