if anyone knows you in Renegade, it's because you're a clown you're like the class clown, except you're not funny when you play, you run around and suck with a stealth black hand there's nothing about you worth remembering, other than the fact that you're mentally unstable and unmedicated

that's why you were removed from Jelly a long time ago i can honestly say it was one of the best decisions we've made cool topic btw

Even though Wilo's accusations against you were false, you didn't help your case by evading bans and posting crap on the forums.

You dug yourself a bigger hole, If you just took a step back, started chilling out. Then maybe just maybe, in a few short months Jelly would allow you back.

But first you've got to prove to everyone that you can indeed be the good guy and stop posting crap.

not sure where ppl get that I want back in to jelly ? I never played there much anyways and at no point have asked to be unbanned.

my point of posting the above post is to show why they banned me . charlie like to make out he banned me for my attitude . fact is there was no trouble in jelly ever and they only banned me one week after wilo messaged me the above message .

as for chilling and stop posting crap now wheres the fun in that ?
