First time ive ever encountered this glitch, we were on n00bstories server and just started walls flying but every building was dead and no harvesters spawned. Only 1 or 2 PTs were in each base. Server had to be restarted to fix it lol.

It's the triple 7's glitch. You know it, when you have 3 players with "7's" at the end of their nick = everything dies. I thought TT fixed that.

LMAO

Not sure what key I press on the keypad but at that moment it was a very funny pose.

This was a really weird bug. I had never seen it before which is kinda cool. Credits were also going up the 2 every second even though the Refineries were both dead.
