WIP map based on the TCW_Center_Point.

This will not be a regular AOW or DM map.

Both teams will have a Core which affects your base health when its attacked by the enemy.

There is however a catch: in the center will be a special node that must be repaired/captured, after that is done, the enemy core will take damage.

Repairing the core is not possible.

Nice, i'm liking the naval siege theme. However isn't there already a map called "under siege"?
