I've been having a problem with the Level Edit. I've been trying to edit a few mission maps for a server. I open up the program load a map, and it just stops responding out of the blue. I am running windows 7 and just be advised that I am running this as an administrator. Pic is below at the end. Any suggestions? THANKS!!

Looks like some registry problems, you might want to consider getting TT 4.0 for Renegade and then applying this to your mod tools >

The registry files, are located in the leveledit folder... simply choose your windows version and you should be good to go
