I like the idea of the PT skins although I would of highlighted the building images more to fit in with the PT elements ie bright light up.

The scrin buildings as far as i can see are just a colour change with scrin logos. But this has a lot more potential, with the right textures, you can really give thoes buildings a true scrin theme. Remember thoes C&C 3 skins Degranus did for the Vehicles?
The only difference is buildings are far easier to skin.

Ill have to play more c&c 3 to get more an idea of scrins style, then maybe ill edit these into more than a simple recolor.
