Ive noticed that Renhelp is gone now.

Is there someone who knows if there is a backup of this site ?
Would love to get a hold on the tutorial files, as i mostly used this as my reference for modeling.

And since the ones on our MPF site are broken, it would be nice to get those tutorials again.

When I was at MPF... I pretty sure I saved them all to the forums.. but that was a long time ago...

Shame really..
