After 5 years of downtime, renforums needed some cleanup. Here's an overview of some changes. Suggestions are welcome.

The code patch forum was archived. Now read only in the archive category.

The TT forum was added to the TT category (previously in renegade discussions).

The moderator list was cleaned. Added Unstoppable and Jerad as moderators for the mod and mod release forum. Welcome to the club and thanks for your help! Added Unstoppable as moderator for the TT and tech support forums as well. I realize carrierii and reborn are still in there. Reborn returned but never replied to my pm to give his account back. I still hope he reads it. I also hope carrier will return, we will see. Might remove him soon.

Most sticky posts were unstickied as they are no longer up to date. Some sticky posts were redone.

Any suggestions are welcome but I want to keep renforums as authentic as possible.

Makes sense, I actually meant to dig through the core patch stuff and see if I could find any bluehell fixes as ECW's server is still running a version that suffers bluehell.

Is the "unread posts" page glitchy for anyone else (listing posts I've read) or just me? Perhaps I'm using it wrong. EDIT: This topic was marked as unread for me after I added this post :d

Request: adjust the youtube embed so that fullscreen is allowed.

Maybe the page just needs some time to update. Seems to work OK here but it did indd not remove a post I just read immediately.

fwiw Reborn was at least trying to still get access to his account when I shot him a PM on his temp account: rebornman

It may be easier to shoot him an email if you haven't done so already.

I sent him two mails. No reply. Maybe they arrived in his spam.
