M= mega slow

A= allows nod to point whore

M= move out of the way

M= makes GDI lose games

Y= y..do people buy them .

I have been in SEVERAL games lately that people have bought M-Tanks and it has caused us to LOSE!!!! Unless you know how to use them DO NOT buy them.

1. Do not use them on Hourglass for offensive moves blocking the mediums that can't get out the way to repair cause your big Mammy butt can't back up fast enough.
2. If you lose your MammyDON"T buy another one!!!
3. If you are driving a MammySit in the base and pick your nose until a Flamer or Stank comes along for you to destroy.

Does anyone understand what I am saying?

Sorry.....I haven't won a game since our computer was messed with and I am pissy.

Yep, ONLY things mammoths are good at is direct rushing in big force, or as a shield against obelisk fire.

here's my best Mammy buying scenerio:

I am John Doe Blah Blah and I am playing on the Hourglass map, GDI is winning by 4000 points and since I have spent the whole game repairing the Refinery or whatever.....I have all this cash and I am going to buy a Mammy cause Mammys are the most expensive thing you can buy....

Now I am in this cool Mammy and I am going to go left....OH NO there is a Rave, a Light and some Artillery !!! Wait my team is coming to help me.....

BUT THEY CAN'T CAUSE MY BIG MAMMY BUTT IS IN THE WAY!!!!!!

WHY IS MY TEAM YELLING AT ME

Yep, another example of Mammy visions of granduer(spelling) and how many times does this happen!!! ALOT

Mammys are big, Mammys are slow
if you buy one, you're not friend but, foe
Please keep it in your pants,
And NEVER do the Mammy dance.

If GDI have lost the WF, a couple mammy can be your teams salvation, as long as the people with the vehicle are not morons. And side of the AGT, but i agree with nodmama

M= mega slow
A= allows nod to point where
M= move out of the way
M= makes GDI lose games
Y= y..do people buy them .

You guys obviously don't know how to use a Mammoth Tank.

It's the most expensive, and powerful, tank for a reason. A very good reason.

They are very good defensively. you cant drive through them and there so huge wel lthey are huge. I sit next to the obliisk and wait for someone to decide to rush with a flame tank or an apc. My and the AGT get them before they get into the base.

Well, considering I've been using Mammoth Tanks for over a year's time, and considering they're my tank of choice in a large battle with enough cash, I think I'm pretty sure of what I'm talking about.

As not to be the butt of an ACK ATTACK. I just want to say that I wasn't talking about the use of Mammys by strong and worthy Ren players. I may not play like I used to.....but I watch and watch and see what is going on. I know more than you may think.

Well, if they can't use them, there's not much you can do about it. You can't just say "Well, you don't know how to use them like I do, so don't buy them," because they'll do it anyways.

Best way is just to lead people in a direction they're going. You can't lead a horse to water and make him drink.

Nodmama, that's fine. It's understandable to get pissed off because people on your team have shit-for-brains. Lets just keep the threads from being redundant here. I'm sure we've heard the anti-Mammoth Tank argument plenty of times.

Oh, yeah heard something about his butt getting kicked by someone ...I didn't know it was you. Was that in Crimsons Server cause he doesn't want to play in there for some reason. We just had some work done to our system and he insists on playing even though our computer is tweaked. I keep telling to wait until it is fixed before he makes an ass of himself.

The best tank blockades that I've seen use mammys. They are good at that:

It probably was me. I've been playing in Crimson's server a lot more than usual.

TankCmdr6 is the name.

OOOOOOOOOOO YAthat was YOU!!! He was so funny he was all " I got schooled by this guy, honey.....blah blah blah" I was all like

" Thats nice dear....blah blah blah " but I didn't realize that was you...how funny is that. Thank god he never reads the forums. He hates getting owned especially in sniping. I think he jumps around while he's shooting too much ,,,,,,,I know you got to move around but, he is like Jello on a vibrating bed when he plays in sniper games.

LOL

He's a good shot, but jumping around makes shooting become difficult. Try seeing if you can get him to jitter side to side, that's a lot more accurate than jumping is.

Actually I was going to reply with that too, the only reason mummies seem to suck so much is because most people don't use them right. I see most people who buy mummies just rush to the enemy base and get destroyed which makes people feel that those tanks suck.
