Looks good, but why are the weapons floating in the air? Also, the guns could use some texturing. Other than that, those are some sweet models! I like!

I wouldn't let him skin it. He'll steal it like he's trying to steal Glacier Flying.

Learn how to skin it yourself. That's part of doing 3D modelling, learning how to create models and texture them.

Funny, CaptKurt1 just replied and deleted his post.
