The reason ACK can't co-exist with people is because he has both a inferiority and superiority complex.

His inferiority complex: He tends to take all helpful advice as insulting or bitching. Therefore, he goes and throws a temper tantrum, calling people n00bs and other rude and racial names. After even telling other people, quite rudely, not to use caps, he turns around and writes a whole paragraph in caps at the person he tries to flame. This just shows he is a big fat baby who has lost his childhood because he had no parents to begin with.

His superiority complex: Since he is probably one of the best map makers for Renegade, he tends to boast, what he considers, "superiority". He tries to belittle every contributing member of the community so he could seem like the bigshot. Therefore increasing his reason to boast his "superiority" and make his ego quota 2x bigger. Yet, in all of this mess, he can't figure out that, in truth, he himself is just another contributing mapmaker for the community like o0commander0o or YSLMuffins.

In lamence terms: The Renegade Alert mod has fallen because of ACK not trying to work together with the community. Instead of healing the mod progress (like it should have), He made it fall by taking everything waaay to offensively, when it was just a simple question to being with.

To shorten that even more: Ack is a whiny little bitch who will never be able to find any mental health clinic, and he will go through the rest of his life with people thinking that he is a cornhole.

Now, for people who still don't understand: ACK's a straight up asshole. Plain and simple.

bigejoe14... and he will go through the rest of his life with people thinking that he is a cornhole.

At least he has a life, unlike you, Mr. Critical.

Give me some decent examples of why I have no life, And I will make a new thread, admitting to everyone, I don't have a life.

Jesus Christ man, how can you believe those very words you've just spewwed all over the computer screen? It doesn't take a rocket scientist to understand you have no life after reading your essay on analysing Aircraftkiller's attitude.

And it dosen't take a rocket scientist to figure out that it's all true. After ACK said that the RenAlert mod was closing, that's what pissed me off. I knew from the beggining, the mod was gonna fall because of ACK's behavior. It was so obivious why no one posted bugs about the mod. If anyone posted something negative, he would just tell them to "STFU N00B!" He never did anything helpful, he drags along failure and negativity everywhere he goes. ACK has such a large aura of hate around him, it's disgusting.

LOL I can't believe this. Hey bigjoe, if your going to use big words at least know what they mean.

Inferiority complex: -A persistent sense of inadequacy or a tendency to self-dimishment, sometimes resulting in excessive aggressiveness through overcompensation-. or - sense of personal inferiority arising from conflict between the desire to be noticed and the fear of being humiliated.

I highly doubt that he has a "persistant sence of inadequacy", if this was the case he'd not release his maps, thinking they were to bad for realease.

Superiority Complex: -An exaggerated feeling of being superior to others.- or - psychological defense mechanism in which feelings of superiority counter or conceal feelings of inferiority.- or -an exaggerated estimate of your own value and importance.

I think having westwood recognize his map making abilities over all others and giving him the unfinished maps to call his own gives him bragging rights. I don't think that his value and importance is exaggerated.

As for Java's reason for you having no life? Simple you had the time to post this unreaserched garbage, so you must of had nothing better to do with your time, right? :rolleyes:
