Insted of offer you 2 different places where you find tutorials, we have decided to work together and use one Database for both sites.

you now find all tutorials at:
[list]
[*]www.laeubi.de/tutorials
[*]www.renhelp.info
[/list:u]

Sadly there are some problems with the DNS server so you find the site temporary at:
http://generalhavoc.port5.com/ as long as renhelp.info don't work.

I've been playing around with the PHP code and the MySQL database so it may look screwed up if i'm working on it although I try to test the pages before uploading them.

If you have any tutorials that you would like on our sites then contact me at generalhavoc@nodnl.net and provide me with the zipped and prefably optimised version of your tutorial, your email address and optionally a link to a support forum or page related to your tutorial.

Thanks

_General Havoc
