Well, it's been a while, I know, I've been playing PlanetSide lately, I bought the game after being in the beta hoping it was everything the Devs said the retail version would be, and it wasn't. It should've never came out of retail. This doesn't mean I've canceled my suscription, I'll still keep it, but until they fix it up Renegade is a much better game.

I'm considering this a fresh start for JSS. I'm going to need moderators again, and my old ones are still welcome to stop by my newer channel <irc://irc.n00bstories.com/jteksvr00> PM me your nick and IP.

If you've never moderated for me just e-mail me your WOL nickname IP why you want to mod and if you've ever moderated any server before.

E-mail address is SSDedicated@hotmail.com, I may not always be watching the server as I have a lot of work to do on a website I'm making. But I'll try my best. Within a week JSSMX will be it's oldself.
