Is this a MMOFPS like planetside or will it have a campaign. Or will it ONLY be campaign. Im too lazy to look through the site.

One thing thats neat is that the system requirements arent through the roof.

And is this a download game or will it be out in stores

From the Faqs

No, there is no additional fee for the multiplayer part, only your internet connection costs. Servers will be available on launch in various territories.

If you are referring to FPS issues, you may be correct. Keep in mind that lag refers to network latency, not your computer's speed itself. There seems to be large confusion about that on this forum.

Also remember that Latency is not related to Bandwidth.

I.E. A 56K modem can have a lower ping than a 250Mbit Optical Fibre Connection.
