Seems that fud clan does not like good players on their Server. They often kick the players leading the game. Nice job guys, n00bz only want to have n00bz on the server to win at least one game

Just remember, what it says via the fps command isn't always true.

Thats strange... Our server doesn't log many pings under 100 -- unless they're on the network at MIT; somewhere I highly doubt you're a part of, seeing how you apperently can't even master simple grammar. Renrem logs all pings, and with a simple command, we view that log. Somehow, I would place you in the 200-800+ range. Not your inaccurate, FPS dialog of "80".

Even moreso, I remember seeing you in OUR servers quite a while ago. You suck, dude.
