That is soooooooooooooo biased the kills to win ratio should decide the victory there after and if that is the same they should both get half the ladder points eay and both get no loss or win added on.

I think it should be the team with the most people who have high scores. Then a team with a rambo cant win =P maybe promote teamwork

-Sk8rRIMukNo a darw is a draw so no winner so no points gettiing or losing. We asked in the beta for a draw screen but they ignored it like more stuff...

If they don't lose ladder points, then how are they getting ladder points? Since no one is losing them, WOL can't give away poitns. Am i right or am i right?

No, GDI wins in a draw situation, and therefore GDI gets ladder points and Nod loses them.

Ya but how often do draws actually happen ? Such a small amount of the time that it's not a serious issue. But yes , it does suck for Nod if GDI auto gets the win. Maybe that will make ppl rethink calling folks who shoot tanks w/pistols&auto riffles n00bs !

GDI will win. Ever started a game and before anyone gets any points it shuts down? Whos banner is up on the scoreboard? GDI.

If you think about it G.D.I win either way (draw or if they win) because they are the ones trying to stop the war so either way they will be happy.
