From our sniping server because he was winning the ladder for it. He was kicked from his own clan for using the in game command to restrict his bandwidth and we busted him for doing the same.

Don't be telling people you were kicked for winning because there is no way in hell you near as good as the next player down.

If you think you are so good I bet I can set up matches between ADM, Java, Boink and myself and lets see how good you really are. Oh and by the way I think you will dodge this challenge.

And when you do I WILL CALL YOU PUNK ASS B1TCH

I've seen CrepyX in the FUD servers quite a while ago, and he really wasn't that spectular if he was cheating at the time or not. You probably have nothing to worry about regardless.

um... ok This is funny. I am up for the challenge although I do know that some people that you posted ARE better than me: ADM, Java, and maybe r4in but he hasn't played in a while. I am good buddies with ADM, r4in and Apoc they all know I do not use this. I used it ONCE to show you guys on K9 cause there were like 5-6 other dommies in there. I did not use it anywhere else, in clan games or public games.... WHEN was I kicked from DOM? I think March-April? Anyways I have not used it since... Those people who I play everyday KNOW I do not use it. I am up for the 1v1 challenge, although I do know I will get my ass kicked by some of you but those people DO NOT INCLUDE PEOPLE FROM FoD... :rolleyes:

"Don't be telling peope you were kicked for winning because there is no way in hell you near as good as the next player down."

LoL. You say I am worst than fr0chin? Ask fr0chin we did play vs each other and I AM better. About the other guys in the top 10 I don't really know...

Drkxfactr is the newest guy in 1st place and I am at least as good as him...

BTW, I was playing your server today with another name, I was at my 5th game. 1st game I had 42 kills, 2nd game i think 37, 3rd game 40, 4th game only 29, and the 5th game, guess what happened? You guys banned before I would get #1 again on the ladder :rolleyes:

"Oh and by the way I think you will dodge this challenge" I am not a wuss, but I am sure if you were me, you wouldn't show up, as every person makes assumptions from their OWN perspective..

Even if I loose, I don't care what you say, because I do not use the bandwidth restrict crap. I don't need it...

And the HOD was me. And yes crepy...k9 had a SS of the FDS just a few weeks ago of you using the lagcheat. It's not hard to spot when someone has 25kbps consistanly one minute, then the next you have a consistant 6-8. It's real easy to spot. I'm somewhat tempted to put the URL in this thread for all to see, but I'm not yet at that point. And yes, people from FoD CAN kick ur ass.

Did you know that alt+tabbing also reduces that? Any other program that uses part of the bandwidth (ie downloading, Team Speak for that matter)

also reduces the kbps... I DO NOT USE THE COMMAND LINE FOR THE BANDWIDTH RESTRICTION, GET IT THROUGH YOUR HEAD. I do NOT need it.
