To Crimmy; you have done great things with this site.

To everyone else: Would someone please explain to me what RenAlert is? And what is RenEvo? Are they the same thing? Are they mods?

Crimmy, good thing you turned off avatars, or I would have a smoking monkey staring at you all the time.

Hey Giz, good to see you

RenAlert is a mod for Renegade which is a total conversation to Red Alert..

RenEvo is "Renegade Evolution" i believe, i'm not 100% sure what they do though lol (mod? no offense Dante but i really have NO idea!)

Giz,

RenAleart is a Red Aleart 1 total Conversion mod. I have played the beta, and it was very different and very fun. I look forward to the release.

Renevo (at <http://www.renevo.com>) is a community of moders led by Dante. They support several mods including RenAleart and the Dead6 mod. ACK is a big part of these mods. Just swing on by thier website to learn more.

Renevo is down, at least it is for me anyway. Is it working for anyone else?
