Guys, you need to change your website banner.

I understand that it's a quote/moto written inside the logo, but you should at least correct the spelling.

Original :

I had a few spare minutes, so i took the liberty of correcting it for you.

Corrected :

Use the correct version if you wish.

There's no need to give any credit.
Just a thankyou will do nicely.

Switch to the Xtreme theme. I love it. I just set it as teh defualt theme. Much easier to read things. And on the forums...just highlight stuff until we create a new style .

Added the apostrophe, and missing 'e' from both interests.

Hmm. I'll have to go through rhino's tutorials and make sure there's no backround color. On his older site there was a grey backround with it. Hmm. This is what I see.

You have spelled "motto" incorrectly.
