Ok here are the cheats i've seen, and i'm only on gamespy cus my internet components were messed up and i lost renegade disc 1.

The first one I've seen may actually be a combination of two. I was on the guy's team that was cheating and i followed him around on city flying. He ran to the harvester and blew it away in about 2 seconds with his auto rifle. Then when we got close to the Nod base he took out the two turrets with about 7 rounds each. Then he killed the harvester about 20 times as it would continuously be flown into the airstrip.

Then in another game i was on the opposing team on city flying and the same guy took out our harvester a few times. He was a deadeye and anybody that passed thro the general area where he was looking usually would last more than 2 seconds. So I figured well he's probably not invulnerable cus he wont come view of the obelisk so i went around to the back of the hand and bought a black hand sniper. As soon as i walk around the corner of the hand i dropped dead, didnt even have time to zoom.

And the other game it wasn't as obvious cus you could kill the guy sometimes. I'm pretty sure he had the "big head cheat" cus if you got close to him it was all headshots without missing. But when you were far away in a sniper fight with him he'd miss half the time. I guess he sucked so bad he had to have cheats to be halfway decent.

Anyway has anybody seen any others?

To think that cheaters would make them more insidious. Are the makers just stupid or trying to prove a point?

Isn't the purpose of cheating NOT to get caught? I swear it's like some of these people try to get caught on purpose

I swear some of the people that use big head really suck. It's like they've never played before. I was on the opposite team of 1 of those cheaters, so I decided to get a Humvee and kill him with that. and it worked with him barley hurting me.

It's sad to see how bad some of the cheaters suck when their cheats don't work :rolleyes: :rolleyes:

Exactly, we need more people like you. See, Some of us aren't bothered by the cheaters because most of them suck even when they're cheating. So, until RenGuard comes out, let's just keep killing the n00bs and Cheaters, eventually they'll get tired of us killing them.

lol. y do they cheat exactly? its so unfair, i prefer winning the fair way, more humiliating for the others.

they should make a cheat server, just to satisfy the cheaters and keep em out of our hair!

To clarify i don't mind if i'm in an unladdered game or i'm just having a laugh.....

but if i'm stopped buy a cheater while i'm trying to systematicly take down a base with my scantaly clad hotwire on a 50 player laddered server, I won't be happy.....

its renegades fault really, i mean about the big head cheat, if it really works the way people say, as refrence, in CS if you get a "big head" model, it does nothing, because you still need to hit the "head" box.....

lol I played the best game of renegade I have ever had in a while.

it was a 2 on 2 infantry war with someone with one hit kill cheat. I totally kicked his bitch ass and he accused me of cheating. It was funny as hell

Big head isn't just a skin if I'm correct. And normally you aren't aloud to change the model, so it's not a simple Renegade fault.

Well, for me I have come through countless cheaters, but I've never posted them up in anywhere, because I thought it was my poor performance in this game.
