I know to respect interests, but that people which watch it are cumming while seeying it. And they run to people who hate that shit and ask if they have seen the last episode. That is sick...

I'm way older than most people here, and I like DBZ. Why? Its hard to truly explain, but to make it simplistic I will just say because it is violent The versions of it you seen on the cartoon network are highly censored, the uncut versions have blood and foul language Like I said its hard to say why I like it, I just do...as a kid (and maybe always?) people fantasize about having super powers, and its hard to get more powerful than the dbz chars...plus if you watch it from the very first episode, it actually has a plot and story...unlike most other shows that just have a story contained within a single episode. Dbz is a series, and also has some full length movies. So I find it more in-depth than most other shows which are designed for kids with short attention spans.

Painted blood is holy shit and you are cumming on it :twisted:

BTW:

Cartoon Network??? What is it??

I only know Nikelodeon. But this Station gone offline 6years ago.

Cartoon Network is a cable and satellite channel which airs; vintage to modern cartoons and butchered anime.

Nickelodeon is still on the air in the US and is still going strong, your area may not recieve it any longer though.

ohh man... I get headace of those cartoons...
I can't believe that people watch those dragon ball z things .
it doesn't make sense, some idiotic creatures who are killing each other with super power
:rolleyes: . yeah right, It's made for children who are 5 years old or so... ugh...

DBZ is cool in some ways, i honestly dont watch it much, but i have seen a few episodes (my friend is like DBZ crazy) What is cool about it is, you think of it as a TV series, people fly around the world light speed while some old guy watches them on some magic ball. You dont think how fun it would be to do all of that in a mod, so thats why i decided to model them.

There is a version 2 to this mod, will soon be up on ammo and i know some people have already got it cauz i sent it around, so far i have done 4 models and i think that is enough for me to do, i might do some others in the future. You are welcome to use them in a mod, if you do decide to do a mod then i might make you one infantry especially.

Here are the 4 infantry:

Also, you should ask around for help on maps, often the people who start these mods are n00bs who just think they can make a mod out of nothing - and believe it, they say like.. im going to make a mod on real life with some super huge map like a city! With all new characters! then they got no idea how to do it.

So i suggest if you dont know how to do it, then recruit people to do it for you.

Another aspect which people know about is that renegade is dying quite quickly, and this is because people like me are just dedicated to making mods and dont play - so it dyes, and the game is waring out, and so the moral of this story is that: 'it is too late to start another renegade mod' unless ofcourse you are phsyco army who can make an entire mod in like 4 days.. lol.

13+ ????

Scud-Storms in the Garden to attack somebody

Very much games are rated here cause they think the games are too violent.

Cut people's posts down size, people don't appreciate a huge quote with big pic and all that's replied is one single line, it looks awful.

yeah , I got the fansubs aswell as the original episodes on DVD.

Dragonball is the worst of the set for gore/sex/violence...

Dragonball Z is'nt that bad, I watch lots of Anime and I have seen many people who don't like it...

But hey, you gotta give it a chance.
