Here's me shooting at him from down range.

Here's me killing a poor engy, which is the same guy I killed that was a Havoc in the first picture.

Yes I know they are out of Chronological order but meh.

Here you go you whiney little ho.

Funny how poor strafing, walking in a straight line and a kill from behind show who the real n00bs are. Oh and man I wish I could show another picture of this one GDI guy that was using a soldier yelled and screamed. I killed his soldier that looked to be around 20 health. The red box was a sliver past the second one, but I shot him when he was fighting a chem trooper and he and he yelled that I was cheating. Such great times.

He was in a server, called me a cheat and after being slammed and proven wrong repeatedly was removed to the server and given a link here. So it was more of a point don't pull shit out of mid air with no back up.

Slicer_238RenX any word on when Sole survivor's first public beta is going to be released? There's not a lot of stuff going on with SS, I haven't gotten a new beta in a good 4 months.

If you don't have beta 2, just email SomRhino, I can't remember his email though. Just check at drireign.net

As for the release...I think it's going through internal testing now, or is close to it. After that it goes out to the beta testers. After the beta testers, either the bugs get fixed and it goes public...or, the bugs get fixed and it goes back so more stuff can be completed.

EDIT: SomRhino isn't very picky about who gets the betas anyway, so as long as you're not a complete n00b there is good chance that you could get to be a beta tester. just register at drireign.

If I'm correct isn't he the guy that created Conquest Winter? Anyways, the mod itself looks nice. Hopefully it will be done before most people that will d/l it are gone.
