It's funny, because a little over 24 hours ago this would be done within then next couple months. Then two sentences later in the same thread it'll most likely be done within the next month.

And now it's out... Not that I'll be trying it out.

Yes it is out on only one site but i have 2 more things to add to it real quick so i took it off and i will be posting it back up sunday, i dont care if you dont want it, but people are always telling me that they wanna kno how to make them well i put a sample script in there that says what everything ment and i take back that it will be done within a month i got alot done last night.
